Local officials celebrate opening of new SR 527 lanes June 9

WSDOT, local officials and neighbors are joining at 10 a.m. Friday, June 9 to celebrate the completion of the SR 527 Widening project at Hauge Homestead Park, 1819 121st Street Southeast in Everett. You are invited to join us.

Everett Mayor Ray Stephanson, Snohomish County Executive Aaron Reardon, Transportation Improvement Board Executive Director Steve Gorcester, Rep. John McCoy of the 38th district and Secretary of Transportation Doug MacDonald will speak at the event.

Crews widened the highway from two to five lanes between 132nd SE in Mill Creek to 112th SE in Everett. The opening of these new lanes marks the end of an almost 12 mile long corridor widening project between I-5 and I-405.

WSDOT seeks input for future US 2 improvements; plans open houses June 13 and June 14
